

The society committee and other officers have again continued as normal.

The Cronicl has been ably produced by our Editor Jenny Caines, producing a consistently impressive array of articles within the Cronicl. Although Jenny has commented at the last executive meetings that the number of articles submitted to the Cronicl is falling in number. I can only emphasise that we can only publish what you the membership submits, we look forward to your forthcoming articles!

As always I want to thank Angela Jones, our Membership Secretary and Facebook facilitator for providing that valuable link between the membership, the society and via social media. But why is it that we have so little in return from Facebook followers.

The recording and checking of the Powys burials continues, these are then sent to the Federation for publishing on the FindMyPast site, for which we get a few pence every time a FMP subscriber looks at a page we have created, so next time you are on FMP do a little search for our data. Currently we have submitted 88,701 burials via the Federation. Thanks also goes to Ursula Griffiths for being the NBI co-ordinator, our link into the Federation Data Manager

Speaking of Ursula Griffiths, we would like to give an extra mention for her work in digitising the contents of the Montgomeryshire group library. This has taken many hours of work, so she should be congratulated. To see these scans go to the Members Area of the website.

The zoom meetings have now re-started, they will go on each month now until January 2027, they will be dis-continued after this date. Partly because the take-up has diminished and partly because the local meetings are back in full swing now. The only way they could continue if someone new comes on-board to Research, Book speakers and host the meeting.

The only zoom will be an annual event for the AGM.
